

MarsCon 2001: a space oddity

May 11-13, 2001

Radisson South Hotel, Bloomington, MN

MarsCon returns to the Radisson South Hotel the weekend of May 11-13, 2001, for another fan-run science fiction/fantasy convention for all ages. MarsCon offers great programming, fun and unique parties, a masquerade, a science room, an art show, film/anime room, gaming room, a charity auction ... and many other fun activities.

Guests of Honor for MarsCon 2001:

Jane Yolen, Author Guest of Honor. Children's author and past president of the Science Fiction Writers of America. Newsweek calls her "America's Hans Christian Andersen." Jane Yolen's official website: www.janeyolen.com.

Bill Blair, Actor Guest of Honor. Or perhaps our Alien Actor GoH; he has played many species in Babylon 5 and Star Trek episodes. Bill Blair's official website: www.alienactor.com. With Bill will be professional makeup artist Carl Talliaferro, who will be demonstrating character makeups.

Christopher Jones, Fan/Artist Guest of Honor. Christopher has gained a lot of attention from Twin Cities fandom with his terrific comic artwork. Besides comics, his art has appeared on everything from buttons, to t-shirts to fannish publications.

Michael Liebmann, Music Guest of Honor. He's a member of GaFiA (Georgia Filkers Anonymous) and the owner of Southern Fried Filk, LLC. His website is at www.geocities.com/sffilk/index.htm

Stanley Kubrick, Posthumous Guest (Ghost?) of Honor. Well, we just had to, considering our theme!
